

December parent letter

Dear North Muskegon Choir Parents/Guardians,

I thoroughly enjoyed teaching your children first trimester and hope to continue challenging them to become better musicians and impactful young people. Take some time to ask your child about how he/she acts during class and discuss how to become an effective learner. Children don't always know what to do unless the adults show them how ☺

- Cheesecake/poinsettia Fundraiser Pick up on Friday, December 1, 3-4pm
- Choir Council Holiday caroling/party- Sunday, December 10 (council members)
- Holiday bake sale ($5 per box at the concerts) Drop off homemade holiday treats in choir room 3-3:30pm on Sunday, December 10
- MS Holiday concerts- MS Choirs- Monday, December 11, 6pm and 7:45pm; formal uniforms; 5:30pm attendance; $3 tickets- partial proceeds being donated to The Hope Project
- HS Holiday concerts- HS Choirs- Wednesday, December 13, 6pm and 7:45pm; formal uniforms; 5:30pm attendance; $3 tickets- partial proceeds being donated to The Hope Project
- HS Talent show applications due Monday, December 11 Optional participation- applications available in the choir room or main office
- December 22 All-school music assembly during school day senior lunch/caroling after school
- HS Talent Show- Saturday, January 20

Please feel free to contact me anytime with questions or concerns ☺

Sincerely,

Beth Slimko
